This gala event, hosted by the Hon. John Ajaka MLC, Minister for Multiculturalism, in the presence of the Hon. Mike Baird MP, Premier of New South Wales, will welcome 1,500 representatives of multicultural communities in our State to an evening of multicultural food, fashion and performance.

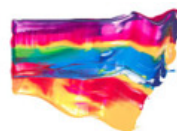

Guests will include Members of Parliament, business leaders, various community leaders, ambassadors and Consuls-General, as well as other dignitaries.

This significant event will celebrate cultural diversity with an array of performances and provide valuable networking opportunities.

Inductees to the Multicultural Honour Roll will be named, and the Premier's Multicultural Community Medals will be awarded to recipients.

This event honours the NSW Government's commitment to a cohesive and inclusive society in which cultures, languages and religions of all citizens are accepted and appreciated.

Through its 40-year legacy ECCNSW is a strong voice in the support of social cohesion and inclusiveness and we look forward to celebrating the evening.
